DOWNTOWN

The Viceroy Miami is home to Kelly Wearstler-designed Eos, a Mediterranean-influenced gourmet tapas restaurant led by Michelin-star chef Michael Psilakis. After dinner, zoom up 40 floors to Club 50, where you'll cocktail comfortably as you gaze out floor-to-ceiling windows offering vast, airplane-esque views of downtown Miami and beyond. 485 Brickell Ave., Miami, 305-503-4400; viceroymiami.com

Club 50

WYNWOOD

Nosh on homemade pastas and brick-oven-baked pizzas at Joey's, known for its warm and friendly vibe and gentle prices (even valet parking is free!). 2506 NW Second Ave., Miami, 305-438-0488; joeyswynwood.com... Afterward, head to Bardot, the brand-new, clandestine speakeasy that nods to the Swinging '60s London rock scene. 3456 N. Miami Ave., Miami, 305-576-5570; bardotmiami.com

The Cape Cod Room

Sra. Martinez

DESIGN DISTRICT

Chef Jonathan Eismann—known for his sumptuous seafood, et al., at Pacific Time—now serves up Roman-style pizza, fresh mozzarella cheeses and fabulous (yet unbelievably inexpensive) wines at Pizza Volante. 3918 N. Miami Ave., Miami, 305-573-5325... Sra. Martinez is Michelle Bernstein-Martinez's latest venture, serving small, Latin-inspired plates (the foie gras with brown butter apples and pulled pork is to-die-for) inside a dark and woody historic former-post-office building. 4000 NE Second Ave., Miami, 305-573-5474

Au Pied de Cochon

MIAMI BEACH

The Cape Cod Room, Ken Lyon's return to Miami Beach since the mid-'90s Lyon Frères et Compagnie, is open at The Bath Club. Expect an authentic New England seafood menu that takes its inspiration from Lyon's Cape Cod roots. 5937 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 305-864-1262; thebathclub.com... Located in a three-story landmark Art Deco building, Au Pied de Cochon serves classic French brasserie fare amid Art

Caviar Kaspia

Nouveau murals and chandeliers and oversize gilt mirrors. 81 Washington Ave., Miami Beach, 305-674-1844; cupiedmiami.com... In other Parisian news: The Webster boutique's on-site Caviar Kaspia serves oscietre, sevruga and imperial baeri, plus delicious entrees and, of course, copious Champagne. 1220 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 305-674-7899; thewebstermiami.com

HOT SCENES AT HAUTE HOTELS

The W South Beach is home to an outpost of famous gourmet Chinese restaurant Mr Chow, plus lively after-hours haunts: Gear up with cocktails at the mellow Living Room lounge, followed by dancing and table service at Wall. 2201 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 305-938-3000; whotels.com

Alan Yau chose the Fontainebleau Miami Beach to house the first American outpost of his Michelin-starred Hakkasan, renowned for divine delicacies including dim sum and black-pepper rib eye beef. 4441 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 786-276-1388; hakkasan.com

BLT Steak is acclaimed chef Laurent Tourondel's signature steakhouse at Ocean Drive's Betsy Hotel, serving up juicy cuts of American beef and decadent sides with French flair. 1440 Ocean Dr., Miami Beach, 305-673-0044; thebetsyhotel.com

Philippe

In the wake of outposts in New York and Los Angeles, STK just opened at the Gansevoort South. Known for its sleek, sexy décor and equally seductive menu items (try the sweet-corn pudding and shrimp Rice Krispies), this is a hearty American steakhouse with an elegant, feminine touch. 2377 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 305-873-6113... Also at the Gansevoort South, the extraordinary Chinese restaurant Philippe, a favorite of celebs and society boldfacers from coast to coast. Chef Philippe Chow has crafted a menu filled with rich delicacies and innovative favorites. 2305 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 305-674-0250; philippechow.com
