

[OPENINGS RESTAURANTS]

WINNING STREAK
From 'bar pods' in Chicago to Shanghai hotel chic and Jim Morrison's old haunt in Paris, open these doors and embrace your inner exhibitionist at the best new places to see and, yes, be seen. By Ken Scrudato

MR. CHOW AND WALL LOUNGE AT W SOUTH BEACH, MIAMI
whotels.com/southbeach
Oh, South Beach—does your party ever end? The mavericks at W Hotels have opened a new flagship so gleaming you can almost hear the Mondrian and the Delano shuddering. Ultra-glam nightlife is the major hook here, with the first Miami outpost of perennial celeb-fave Mr. Chow serving up Chinese cuisine amid Swarovski chandeliers and artfully curated video installations. Meanwhile, Wall sees A-list party boys Francis and Eric Milon ratchet up the decadence in appropriately extravagant surroundings.

