Room with a View

HOTEL: W SOUTH BEACH

The W Hotel is expanding its worldwide reach to South Beach. Located oceanside on 22nd Street and Collins Avenue, each room is angled so that no matter where you are staying, you'll have an ocean view. Expect the usual upscale features that the W brand offers like The Living Room bar, sleek modern rooms, and a Bliss Spa—but most impressive is the arrival of Mr. Chow, making the W South Beach its fifth location in the world. With indoor and outdoor seating, and the chic Chinese cuisine that it's famous for, it wouldn't hurt to stay at the hotel just to score a reservation. —RENEE LUCAS
