W SOUTH BEACH MARKS TWO YEAR ANNIVERSARY WITH LAUNCH OF EXCLUSIVE MELISSA ODABASH LIMITED EDITION TWO PIECE

W South Beach, the Miami luxury beachfront oasis, is launching the ultimate two piece with Melissa Odabash to celebrate its two year anniversary.

The limited edition bespoke bikini features a distinctive Odabash print over a white base and stylish gold rings at the bust and hips. The bikini encapsulates the glamour and elegance of W South Beach, Miami's most iconic oceanfront landmark.

The bikini is a classic cut bandeau, flattering to all body shapes, and has the option of removable straps. The ruched detailing and the elegant gold rings give the piece a luxurious feel whilst entertaining the wild side with the unique print.

Melissa Odabash, luxury swimwear designer, said, "I loved doing this collaboration with W South Beach - it's my favourite place to stay because it mixes fashion, art and music all in one. It's a lifestyle brand like mine and I designed something in my trademark style and animal African print that suits both mine and their clientele."

The bikini is available at W The Store at W South Beach for $161.00
